

Top Travel Safety Tips

- If possible travel with only one or two credit cards. Make sure you get your card back after each transaction.
- Utilize traveler's checks instead of carrying cash.
- Do not dress to impress with expensive clothing and jewelry. This attracts attention.
- Avoid high risk areas. Do not travel to areas where travel warnings have been issued.
- Do not leave money or valuables in your room; put them in the hotel safe.
- If you lose any money or valuables, file a police report immediately.
- After you report the loss/theft make the following notifications:
 1. Travelers checks to the issuing company.
 2. Credit cards to the issuing bank.
 3. Passport to the nearest embassy.
 4. Airline tickets to the nearest airline or agent.
- At the airport stay alert and watch your luggage at all times. Never leave your luggage unattended.
- Ask hotel staff about the safety of the neighborhood and what areas to avoid.
- Do not discuss travel plans with strangers.
- Do not look as if you are lost. Appear confident even if you are actually lost.
- Make sure family or friends know about your travel plans.

FOR INTERNATIONAL TRAVELERS

- Monitor current events and review the latest information on any countries you plan to visit. Most important are the bulletins on the Department of State's Web site at www.state.gov.
- Make two photocopies of your passport identification page, airline tickets, driver's license, and credit cards. Leave one copy at home and pack the other in a place separate from where you carry valuables.

Heightened security measures at airports make the process of arriving, checking in, and boarding an airplane longer. Knowing what to expect and being prepared for emergencies can make your trip both safe and enjoyable.

- To avoid problems with customs, keep medicines in their original, labeled containers. If you wear glasses or contact lenses, pack an extra pair.
- Use the same common sense that you would at home; be cautious in or avoid areas such as crowded subways, train stations, elevators, market places, and festivals where you are more likely to be victimized.

When you travel

PLAN AHEAD

- Allow extra time. The screening process takes longer now, so you should contact your airline to find out how early to arrive.
- Take public transportation to the airport if possible, since parking may be controlled or restricted.

- Don't count on curbside check-in. Contact your airline to see if it is still in place at your airport.
- Make sure you have a government-issued ID (federal, state, or local); it is now required to board a plane.
- If you have an E-ticket, you may need written confirmation from the airline, such as a letter, fax, or e-mail. Check ahead of time to make sure you have the proper documentation.

PACK WITH CARE

- Certain items, such as knives, cutting instruments, and ski poles, can no longer be carried on board but walking canes and umbrellas can. Check with your airline if you are unsure about whether to place an item in checked or carry-on baggage.

- Remember that each traveler is limited to one carry-on bag and one personal bag such as a purse, laptop, or briefcase.
- All electronic items, such as laptops and cell phones, may be subjected to additional screening at the airport.
- Do not gift-wrap carry-on items as they may need to be opened during security screening.
- List your name, address, and telephone numbers inside and outside of each piece of luggage. Use covered luggage tags to avoid casual observation of your identity.

BE AWARE OF YOUR SURROUNDINGS

- Stay especially alert and watch your bags carefully at all times. Don't let anyone but uniformed airline personnel handle or watch your bags.
- Report anything suspicious to the nearest airport or airline personnel, including unattended luggage or packages.
- Do not bring anything on board for another person unknown to or not traveling with you, however innocent or small the package or item may appear.
- Take what you hear seriously. If you overhear someone bragging or talking about plans to harm citizens, report it to law enforcement immediately.

KNOW EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

- Listen carefully to the safety briefing on the plane and follow any instructions from airline personnel.
- Review the passenger safety card before takeoff and landing.
- Locate the plane's emergency exits both in front and behind you. Count rows between you and the nearest front and rear exits.

- Make a mental plan of action in case of emergency.

AS ALWAYS, PRACTICE GOOD CRIME PREVENTION

- Watch out for staged mishaps, like someone bumping into you or spilling a drink. Often it's a ploy to divert your attention while a pickpocket grabs your wallet or other valuables.
- Carry one or two major credit cards and travelers' checks rather than cash.
- Carry your purse close to your body, or your wallet in an inside front pocket. Consider wearing a money pouch under your clothes.
- Never leave your bags unattended or behind your back where you cannot see them. Keep a separate record of the contents of checked luggage. Keep anything of value in a carry-on that stays with you.
- Avoid displaying expensive cameras, jewelry, and luggage that might draw attention. Your aim should be to blend in with the crowd
