Credit Card Misuse

On June 8, 2017, at 9:17 a.m., a woman walked into the Harford County Sheriff's Office Headquarters building in Bel Air to report credit card misuse.

Deputies were informed the victim believed her credit card information was "skimmed" from a gas pump in May, and an unknown suspect attempted to use the credit card information at a local Walmart on June 5.

Through investigation, a potential suspect was identified. He is described as a black male, 5'5" to 6' tall weigh 250 pounds.
