Burglary

On April 20, 2019 at 6:20 a.m., deputies assigned to the Northern Precinct of the Harford County Sheriff's Office responded to the Savory Deli and Market in the 2800 block of Fallston Road in Fallston for the report of a burglary.

Deputies were informed that at some point in the overnight hours, an unknown individual had shattered a glass door to the business, stole a large amount of cigarettes and fled the area.

Through investigation, images of the suspect were obtained. The suspect appears to be wearing a camouflage ghillie style coat, with a hood and dark pants.
